

MIERING-Masts

True to style masts for historical lamps

From the MIERING product range we offer various historical candelabras individually or with matching MIERING lamps. The masts have an inspection flap in the base. All masts can be supplied in an individual, weather-resistant paint finish according to customer requirements. On request we offer the restoration of existing masts and candelabras in accordance with historical preservation requirements

