Glazing for Historic Lamps

In the course of restoration work on old, mostly historical luminaire types, but also on newer models, BRAUN replaces old glass parts in the luminaire unit with new glass in accordance with customer requirements.

For the glazing of historical light models such as Old Berlin, Old Leipzig, or even for the individual existing light of the customer, a wide selection of glazing is available: Real glass, safety glazing, mouth-blown flat glass restauro® as historical glass with air inclusions.
